In obedience to the Chief Secy's orders of 28-9-30 re engaging a bungalow and hiring furniture for the use of the Thakore sahib of Rajkot during his stay in Bangalore from 20-10-30, I beg to state as under:—

The accommodation required is:—

One dining room
One drawing room
One office room
3 bed rooms
3 or 4 stables for horses
One or two Motor Garage

The two bungalows in the Ali Asker Road do not seem to have the above convenience. Further there is no Compound wall between the two bungalows. They are in one Compound. The landlord has no idea of putting a Compound wall between the two.

Taking the above into Consideration I searched for another suitable one. The bungalow "Redcliffe" in Richmond Road is available for this short period on a monthly rent of Rs 250/-. This belongs to one Mr Chinnaswamy Mudaliar, Contractor. This bungalow is in the Main Road, a spacious one and has got the necessary accommodation above referred to and also in addition one bed room, one extra garage and 8 horse stalls. Mr. K. Chandy was living for a long time in this bungalow.

Re hire of furniture Messrs Shacoor Bros have agreed to furnish the bungalow as above and also furniture for verandah etc. at a monthly rent of not exceeding Rs 150/-

My dear Sir Mirza-

I am looking round for the best place to give the young Thakore Sahib of Rajkot a good administrative training. He was nearly 20 when his father died at the beginning of the year, but the Government of India refused to give him his powers then owing to his bad character and entire lack of any training. He is of dissolute habits and is at present at Poona with an English tutor and guardian supposed to be learning his work in the Poona courts and Collector's Office, but he is not doing much good there. And so I am wondering whether it would be any good sending him to Mysore for training and if so whether His Highness would agree to having him. If you yourself were going to be in Mysore I should have no hesitation in sending him there if His Highness agreed to having him, as I know that you would be kind enough for my sake to look after him personally and do your best for him to try and turn him out fit for powers next March. But I know you are going to England next month for some time and I have no idea whether in your absence there would be any one who would really take a personal interest in the matter and see to it that the Thakore Sahib was really being properly trained. I should be very grateful if you would write frankly and fully to me on the subject and give me a rough idea of what the arrangements would be, where he would live and so on, if he were to go there.

Yours sincerely

My Dear Mr. Kealy,

Many thanks for your letter of August 12, with reference to the administrative training of young Thakore of Rajkot.

We shall be very glad to make necessary arrangements for his training and do everything possible for him. I may assure you that my successor will look after him personally and do his best for him. You need have no doubt on that point.

I shall obtain His Highness's permission and write or wire to you. I may inform you that His Highness is at present away in the north and it will possibly take me two or three days to receive instructions from him.

We shall be glad to rent a suitable bungalow for his residence, as we have done for the Maharaja of Travancore (who is still with us) and we shall get it furnished too. All this may not cost much - say Rs 400 for a bungalow with another Rs 100 or two for furniture per mensem.

I hope you are in excellent health and with kindest regards,

My dear Sir Mirza

Very many thanks for your D.O. of 19th August and for so kindly consenting to my suggestion to send the young Thakore Sahib of Rajkot to Mysore for training. Will you kindly let me know to whom I should write, if it be finally decided to send him, as I am afraid the question is not likely to be settled before you sail.

Also I am not quite sure from your letter whether

(a) Bangalore or Mysore would be his headquarters

(b) the rent of the bungalow would be Rs.400/- per mensem? If so the rent plus furniture would work out at Rs.5 or 600/- p.m.? If that be so I am afraid I should have to ask your successor if he could perhaps arrange for something on a less luxurious line as the State is not well off.

Let mid week & let him be entertained & may accompl this in England

Something quite plain is all that is required, containing, say, one dining room, one drawing room, one office room, and 3 bedrooms, and 3 or 4 stables, with a garage. Very many thanks for your D.O.851, dated 11th September 1930 in which you inform me that a bungalow could be rented for from 175/- to 250/- per mensem for the Thakore Sahib of Rajkot, plus about Rs.200/- per mensem for furniture. The charge for furniture seems rather high in view of the very simple requirements needed for the Thakore Sahib and his tutor, and perhaps it might be possible to reduce this?

I have not yet received the Government of India's final orders about His Highness' kind offer to allow the Thakore Sahib to undergo his training in Mysore. But it now appears that, owing to certain religious ceremonies he has to perform, it will not be possible in any case for the Thakore Sahib to reach Bangalore much before the end of the third week in October. I will, of

My dear Sir

I write to confirm my wire No.28-K of yesterday's date saying that the Government of India have agreed to my accepting His Highness' kind offer to allow the Thakore Sahib of Rajkot to go to Bangalore to be trained in administration. I hope he and his guardian (Major Clifford) and his Indian tutor will arrive at Bangalore about October 20th. I have instructed Major Clifford, whose address is 2 Mangaldas Road, Poona, to get into touch with you and fix up details. But I venture to hope that it will be found possible to furnish the bungalow for less than 200/- p.m., as already suggested in my D.O. 663-R, dated 18.9.30 to your address

I suppose there will be no difficulty in getting some cheap simple accommodation for the Indian tutor, as he does not live with the Thakore Sahib and Major Clifford.

I trust the Thakore Sahib will give no trouble and will repay His Highness' kindness by availing himself to the full of the opportunities now going to be given him of being well trained. I am afraid he is at present very ignorant and not at all keen on learning his work or fitting himself for his future duties.

With many thanks again for your trouble.

Yours

Ever Kealy

No. 1007/Fne.1.

Mysore,

3rd October 1930.

My dear Colonel Burke,

In continuation of our conversation about the visit of Thakore Saheb of Rajkot to the Mysore State for undergoing administrative training, I enclose herein a copy of a telegram received from Mr. Kealey stating that the Prince will be arriving in Bangalore by about the 20th instant.

About accommodation for the Prince, there is no alternative except to hire the bungalow called "Red Cliff" in Richmond Road at a monthly rent of Rs.250/. I have accordingly given instructions for engaging this building for a period of 4 months from the 15th October in the first instance. The cost of furnishing the bungalow will be about Rs.150/- per mensem. Action will be taken for hiring the required furniture so as to make the building ready for occupation by the time the Thakore Saheb arrives in Bangalore.

Yours sincerely,

M. M. N. K.
